In the years ahead, when recollection falters and memories grow dim, our sincere hope is that you may be gladdened by this panorama of a swift passing but never-forgotten happiness at this, our college. Trusting in God and with a firm faith in democracy as a mode of existence of a free people, we look to the future with a faith in its success and continued happiness. ORGANIZATIONS

MCCULLOCH HALL

The Student Government, organized in 1934, has developed through the years into one of the most important organizations on our campus. As a tangible expression of self-government by students, this group has fulfilled its duties to the satisfaction of the administration and of the student body that it represents. Led by C. A. Watts as president and Jerome Counihan as Vice-President, it is composed of two representatives from each of the four classes and of the presidents of the dormitory and day student councils. Its primary aim is to insure a cooperative relationship between students and faculty and to promote better understanding and fellowship among all students. Thus, the enforcement of student regulations and the marked development of social life have distinguished another of the Council's successful school years.

The Quartet has represented the cultural interests of the college throughout this and nearby states, by giving sacred and secular concerts every week-end.

Membership in the A Capella Choir is competitive and limited. Intensive rehearsals have been rewarded by the wide acclaim the choir has received for concerts at chapel, various conventions and conferences, at broadcasts, and for programs given during the spring tour.

Outstanding presentations of the year included Robinson's "Ballad for Americans," Handel's "Messiah," Haydn's "Creation," programs of sacred music, and the joint Spring Festival with the band.

Miss Vera E. Whitlock, head of the Department of Music, is director of both the A Capella Choir and the College Quartet. Miss Whitlock has created a new interest and a deep enthusiasm for a better knowledge and appreciation of music at High Point College, through her monthly studio musicales.

Assisting her were Mr. Olin R. Blickensderfer, Mr. Charles McNeill, and Miss Ernestine Fields.

HOME MANAGEMENT HOUSE

ADA B. JOHNSON

Putting an old axiom that "experience is the best teacher" into use, all girls who are candidates for a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics are required to live in the practice house for six weeks during their senior year. Here they live as a family unit, applying all the principles, which they have studied during their previous years, to practical use. Child care, cooking, home budgeting, and home management in general are the important items taught, thereby meeting the requirements of the National Vocational Educational Department in the Home Economics program.

This year, 1940-41, the Home Economics majors are fortunate in having as their new supervisor, Miss Ada B. Johnson, who will direct the girls in their management of the cottage.

Being situated near the campus, the new practice house is ideally located at 909 West College Drive. In keeping with the forward progress of High Point College, many improvements have been made to facilitate the students' work and to bring the practice house up to modern standards of home making; in this way adding new interest to this phase of work.

The purpose of the Pan-Hellenic Council is the active supervision of all the activities of the various social clubs on the campus. This year it has placed special emphasis upon the promotion of better relationships among these clubs and a clarification of the rules under which they must operate. Paul Owen, the permanent chairman from the faculty, has led the group in their most successful and useful of years. Their work included the revising of the constitution of the Council in order that it might meet present needs and the promotion of a spirit of friendliness and cooperation as well as the usual rivalry.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

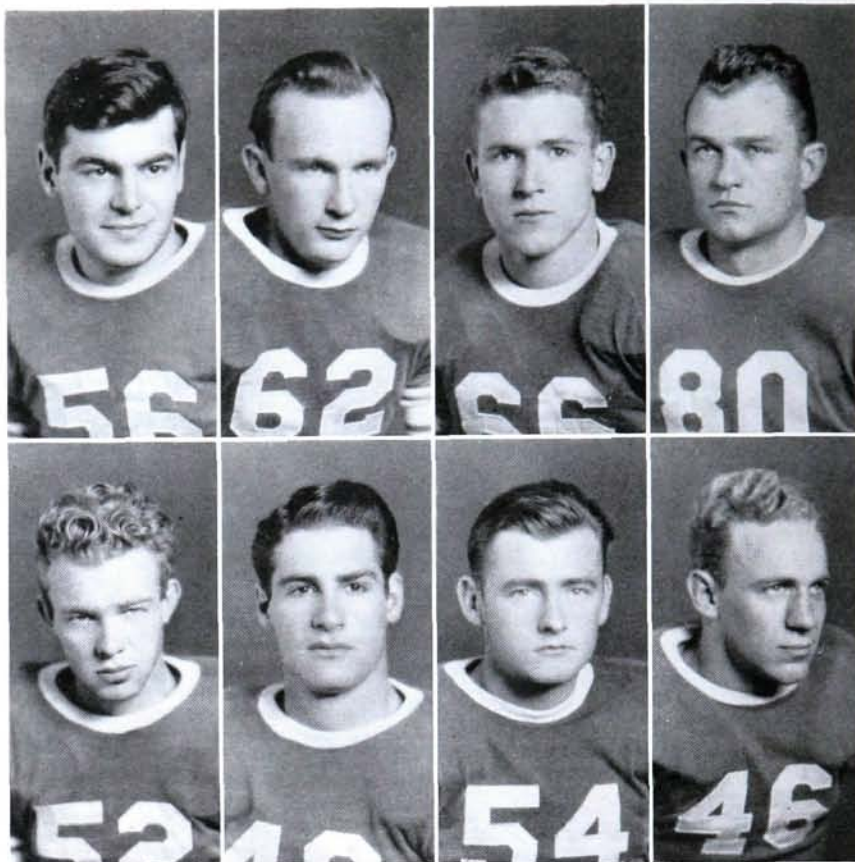

The most evident function of the Athletic Council is its direct supervision over all athletic contests. The supervision of ticket sales, the care of equipment, and the arrangement of trips for the varsities are but a few of its varied tasks. They are responsible for the spirit of our teams as opposed to that of the other colleges in the conference. However, the promotion of intercollegiate sports is but one phase of their work. Less noticeable but far more important is their task of extending the athletic program to every student by means of the physical education classes and the intramural sports program. Recognizing the need for emphasis upon health education, they insist upon every physically fit student's participation in some phase of this program. Composed of coaches, faculty members, and students, the group is completing another progressive year under the guidance of its chairman, Dr. C. R. Hinshaw.

PANTHERS HAVE BEST

High Point College's best football season since 1928 was experienced in the 1940 season. The Panthers emerged from a tough ten-game schedule with five wins, four losses, and one scoreless tie.

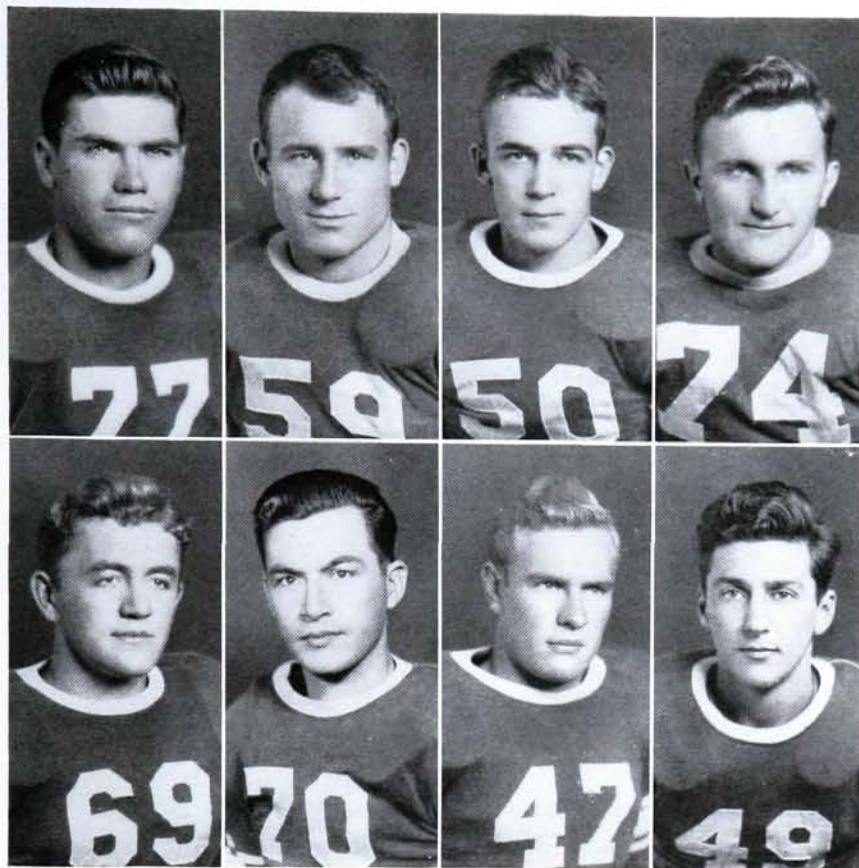

A fine spirit prevailed on the squad throughout the year and this spirit, coupled with that of the student body, was in no small measure responsible for the vast improvement in the team's play.

The season opened with a scoreless tie against a heavier Wofford team. Lenoir Rhyne capitalized on two breaks to defeat the Panthers in the second game on the schedule, 12-0. The Yowmen trekked to Norfolk next week-end and showing a burst of power and speed humbled the Norfolk William and Mary aggregation 33-0.

The season's North State Conference champions, the Catawba Indians, exhibited the slickest passing attack the Panthers faced all season and turned back the locals 24-0.

The squad then upset a favored Emory and Henry eleven 7-0. In probably their best offensive game during the year, the Panthers defeated Western Carolina Teachers College

SEASON SINCE 1928

27-12, on the strength of two 70-yard runs by Arthur Griswald; a 90-yard run by Jack Moran after he had snagged a pass; and a line lunge by Joe Petack.

Elon outswam High Point 19-0 in a contest which was played under the most unfavorable conditions possible. The field was soggy to begin with, but virtual cloudbursts throughout the game made the condition of the field even worse. Such conditions hampered greatly the most effective weapon of the Panthers, their passing game.

The Panthers ran over an outclassed Guilford eleven 25-6 on the night of November 8 and next week-end Eastern Carolina Teachers fell 6-0 when Joe Petack plunged over from the five-yard line.

The season ended somewhat in the manner of a letdown as Newberry drove over the goal line for 45 points while the Panthers were getting nowhere. Newberry had one of the strongest small college elevens in the South, so this is a partial explanation for the poor showing of the Panthers.

SEASON RECORD

The 1940 baseball season wasn't any too successful, but it never is anything to rave about, so that isn't news. To be exact, the team won five, lost eleven, and tied two games.

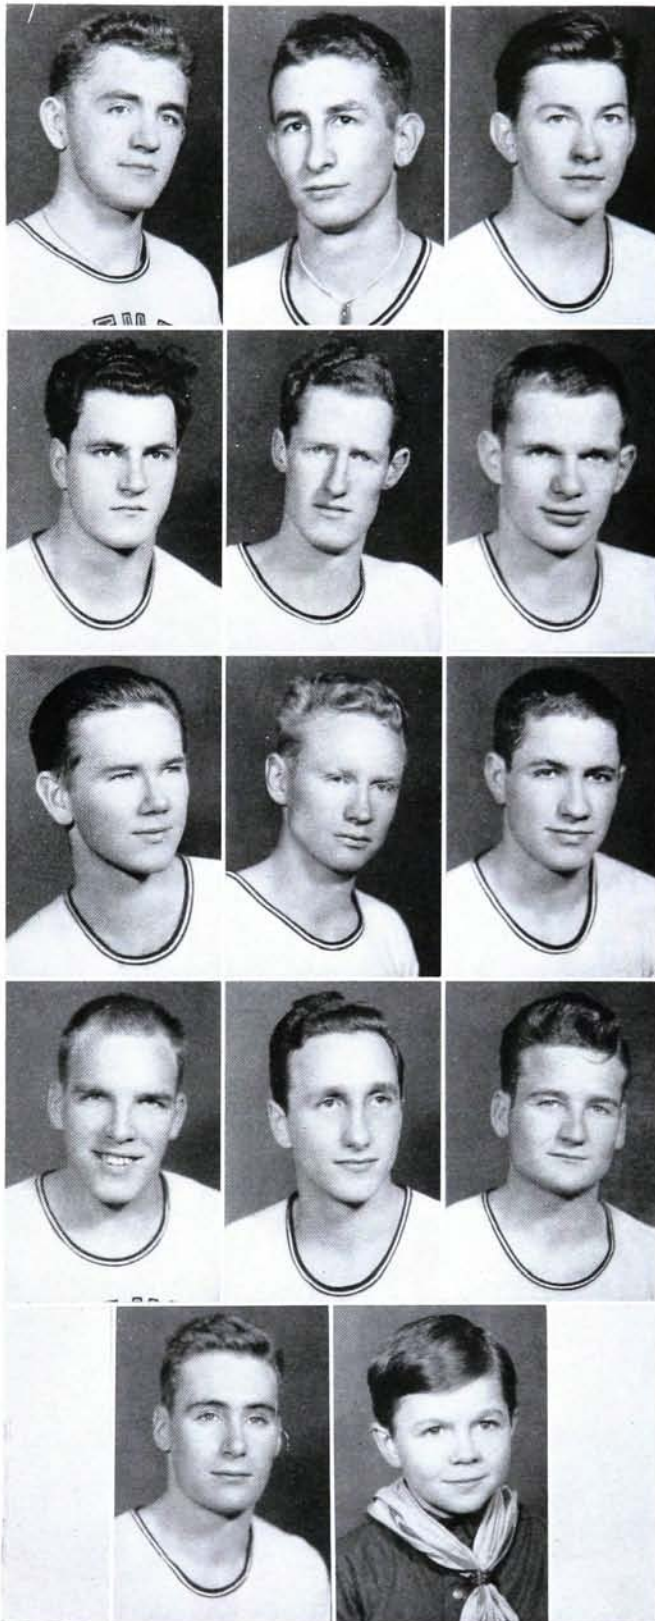

The heavy hitting of Burke Koontz, Hugh Hampton, and Mickey Cochrane went for naught as spotty pitching and shaky fielding combined to overshadow such slugging.

The team fared fairly well against North State Conference competition but several semi-pro teams literally beat the purple socks off the Panthers. The two tie games were played with the professional club of Thomasville and Eastern Carolina Teachers College.

The Purple Panthers of basketball for the 1940-41 season will go down in sports annals as a team which overcame an early season slump; reached a peak which was high enough to beat Appalachian and Elon by big margins; then dropped down to just a mediocre club when the conference championship was decided in the first annual tournament held here.

Even with the loss of Hilliard Nance during the Christmas holidays, and even with the illness of key men in the closing games of the campaign, Coach Virgil Yow's club maintained a record of 17 wins and 8 defeats during the tough schedule.

In four pre-Christmas games the Panthers held a .500 mark, and then after Christmas visited Virginia, there to lose three of the four games played. But upon their return the team began functioning in a manner which netted them wins over Catawba, W. C. T. C., Langley Field, Atlantic Christian, and Guilford. On January 25 the team struck a snag against McCrary but then in succeeding games turned back Appalachian, Lenoir-Rhyne, and Elon.

Then came a turning point in the season. With High Point minus Jack Moran and Bill Keene, Elon triumphed at Elon, 37-35; three nights later Appalachian raced in with a 42-39 win at Boone.

Two nights before the Conference Tournament the Panthers played spotty ball in defeating Lenoir-Rhyne at Hickory 43-37 but in the first game of the tournament the team played like professionals in whipping Atlantic Christian 60-31. Spirit was at a high pitch when the Panthers collided with a hot Catawba team in the semi-finals. Then doom came. It is all history now, how the Indians, playing faultlessly, out-classed a careless Panther outfit, 35-29. Hanes was beaten 44-43 in a season-ender which has as its only interest the fact that Jack Moran ended his four-year career as a Panther cager gloriously by buck-eting four points in the final seconds of the game.

The team was the best-balanced one in recent years, with no one being consistently outstanding all season. George Zuras hit a scoring streak in mid-season and piled up enough points to lead the club in scoring. Captain Jack Moran, Jerry Counihan, Bill Keene, and Marcel Malfregeot must be mentioned if outstanding men are named. George Demmy, Milliard "Red" Coble, Emmett Hartnett, Billy Patterson, Frank Murray, and Russ Lombardy played valuable roles as reserves while Freshmen Henry Liptak and John Stasulli showed promise of aiding the squad a great deal next year.

The unheralded Panther reserves, who serve as a feeding machine for the varsity, went virtually unnoticed through a tough campaign; but, nevertheless, they compiled a record of twelve wins and seven losses.

The Kittens racked up victories over high school teams and strong semi-pro outfits of this section. Coach Jim McCachren's boys triumphed over the high school teams of Greensboro, Hanes, Sumner, Fair Grove, Mayodan, Thomasville, Jamestown, Bethany, Cornelius, and Madison. The independent team which fell was the McCrary Night-hawks of Asheboro. Losses were suffered during the year to McCrary Night-hawks, Greensboro High, Wingate Junior College, Trinity High, Adams-Millis, Minneola Mills, and Hanes High.

Outstanding men for the Kittens included Henry Liptak, Marty Spinelli, Hugh Goerner, and Jim Flanagan, all of whom dressed with the varsity at various times during the year. Jack Burkhead was the fifth man in the combination. Other members of the squad were Bowen, Petack, Jarrett, Walker, Pappas, Lowdermilk, Farlow, Sebastin, Auman, and Perry.

The mythical title of state soccer champions was again earned by the Purple Panther squad after another brilliantly successful season. Continuing to play a championship game, they displayed excellent teamwork and great spirit as they downed such powers as Duke University and Davidson. Their loss and tie came after great fighting games by this team which deserves more praise than it has received. Elvin Lewis and Millard Coble coached the "shin-busters" through the 1940 season in which they won four games, lost one, and tied one. Those showing fine soccer talent were Koontz, Lewis, M. Coble, Giles, H. Garmon, Zuras, R. Garmon, Ferree, Stasulli, Lombardy, Rozelle, Lowdermilk, Weatherly, Pappas, Farlow, Gibson, Soschia, Mecum, Van Bylevelt, and S. Coble.

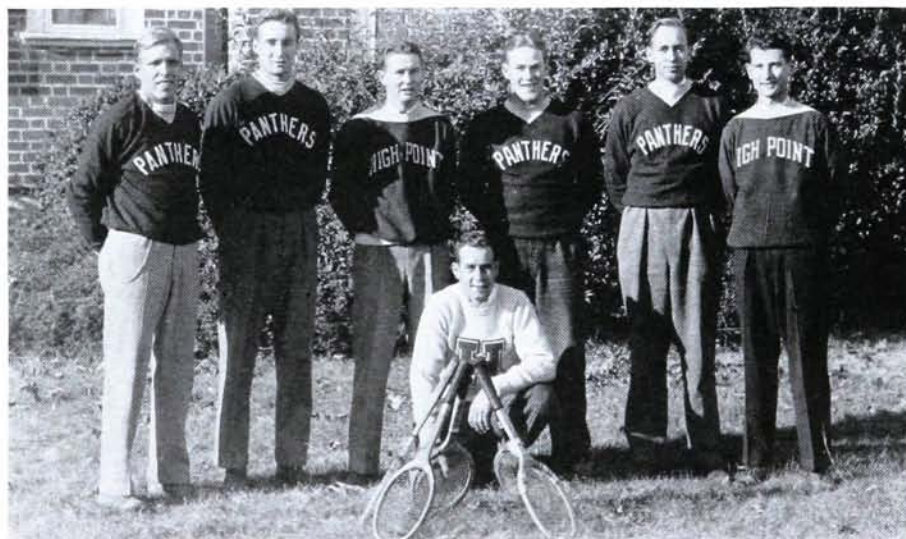

T E N N I S

Last year the tennis team, through the fine work of Hinshaw, Frazier, Welborne, Earle, and Short, easily broke the .500 mark against stiff competition. Although this record is not quite as brilliant as some of the other aggregations on the campus, the team always fights hard and gains respect for their great spirit.

This spring, with Hinshaw, Frazier, and Short lost, returning lettermen Albert Earle and George Welborne hope to develop a winning from last year's outstanding reserves: George Van Guilder, Jerry Counihan, "Lump" Lombardy, and Henry Minor. This year's squad will not have to face the disadvantage of inadequate courts, with which Panther teams in the past have been faced. For this year the addition of new courts has removed this obstacle and paved the way to a brighter and greater season than ever before.

In furthering W. A. A., by sponsoring a program of athletics to meet the need of all girls, three new activities were added this year; hockey, bowling, and archery. Other sports included basketball, volley ball, softball, ping-pong, badminton, and tennis.

Intra-mural tournaments determined the class champions, and cups were awarded the champions in badminton, archery, and tennis. Wholesome recreation was enjoyed by all in the campus square dances, featuring Fish Worley and his troupe from U. N. C. At the annual spring banquet, letters were awarded the deserving girls.
